

VUELTA MODULAR, DESIGN: JAIME HAYON

VUELTA is the foundation of the Wittmann Hayon Workshop collection. Unmistakable lines, Jaime Hayon's playful signature and Wittmann's first-class craftsmanship have sustained the success of the series over the years, helping it on its way to a constantly growing international fan base. VUELTA is every bit at home in an opulent look created by eye-catching velvet as it is with an elegant aesthetic born of muted colours. With statements like these, the striking shape brings living spaces, hotels, restaurants, offices or boutiques of all styles to life worldwide.

VUELTA is a furniture classic in the making. Such icons are created when outstanding workmanship, timeless design and memorable physical forms come together. And now with VUELTA Modular, Wittmann and Hayon have added to the characterful VUELTA solitaires a range of elements that can be arranged at will, expanding the scope of applications for the series by introducing exciting new options and planning possibilities.

The proportions of its familiar form function effortlessly in generous groups that are primed for communication. This lightness is predicated on meticulous development work, with successful and versatile modularity the clear outcome: VUELTA Modular includes corner pieces and intermediate elements, as well as chaise longue elements, and gently curved elements that form an impressive semicircle. This flexibility delivers exceptionally high value for interior planning – in residential and contract settings alike. VUELTA Modular permits a variety of combinations that can be adapted individually to rooms and spaces with different requirements. Like all members of the VUELTA family, the individual modules deliver the inimitable level of comfort synonymous with a genuine Wittmann thanks to their pocket spring cores and high-quality polymousse structure.

"Wittmann has a great design tradition and culture is an important part of the company's DNA. I have always admired this – and the passion for excellent craftsmanship, which I share. The current collection is an expression – the potential for innovation unlocked by our collaboration, which is itself hallmarked by mutual appreciation and respect."
